OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The Pack in Full Cry.

All three of our contemporaries, the Commercial, Wisconsin, and Free Democrat, paid their respects to the Sentinel, yesterday, in connection with the subject of the City Printing. We appreciate the disinterested motive, which prompt our this combined attack and do not doubt that our friendly neighbors, in making it, have a single eye to the public interest and to their own.

We have a few words for each, in turn.

The Commercial takes for its text the following, fished from the Wisconsin mint:

But the Sentinel was selected as the official paper, on the indiction of its tempting offer to do the work for nothing, and yet it obtains for this money 25¢.

We have already exposed and branded this fabricious, but the Commercial thinks that the 17c. sentinel's "dannable creation" (we quote its own words) may induce some persons to believe it.

We repeat, therefore, a brief statement of the facts. The Sentinel was selected as the Official Paper, a cheap cheaper to "its tempting offer"?

That "offer" was indeed in publishing free of cost the notices, enhanced and resolutions of the Board and was not accepted by them. We never proposed, nor did the Council invite proposals for the other printing. And yet of the same sum, two-thirds was paid for that other printing, while the Commercial takes for its text the following:

The Commercial takes for its text the following, fished from the Wisconsin mint:
But the Sentinel was selected as the official paper, on the indiction of its tempting offer to do the work for nothing, and yet it obtains for this money 25¢.

PRESENTATION OF A FLAG TO THE CITY GUARDS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, March 17.

This being the Anniversary of Ireland's Patron Saint, the Milwaukee City Guards, with Major McNamee and Capt. Wurz at their head, paraded out with full ranks and in Soldier-like style.

They met in the spacious hall at Treat's New Block, with the view of receiving from the hands of the Mayor, a new and beautifully wrought banner of white satin, having on one side the arms of the State, and on the other the Goddess of Liberty, with two female figures standing beside her, one representing America, with the motto "Wealth to our State." The other representing Ireland, with the motto, "Wealth to Ireland." There is no "top country" — the command was inappropriate and imposing, and the men looked in condition. After the Guards had gone through several evolutions, and were drawn up in open order, Lieut. O'Brien, Hixson, and McCormick, standing on the one side, and Maj. McNamee and Capt. Wurz on the other, the Mayor took the colors, and addressed the Guards thus:

In behalf of the citizens of Milwaukee, I have the honor to present to you and through you to the Milwaukee City Guards this beautiful Banner which I hold in my hands. A work of art it is most tasteful, and finished, alike creditable to the skill which prepared it and the generous sentiment with which it is endowed.

Among the many voluntary associations which this time is 213 and offers performing members 192, in the orchestra and 78 in the chorus.
